

"For Years,"

Says CARRIE E. STOCKWELL, of Chesterfield, N. H., "I was afflicted with an extremely severe pain in the lower part of the chest. The feeling was as if a ton weight was laid on a spot the size of my hand. During the attacks, the perspiration would stand in drops on my face, and it was agony for me to make sufficient effort even to whisper. They came suddenly, at any hour of the day or night, lasting from thirty minutes to half a day, leaving as suddenly; but, for several days after, I was quite prostrated and sore. Sometimes the attacks were almost daily, then less frequent. After about four years of this suffering, I was taken down with bilious typhoid fever, and when I began to recover, I had the worst attack of my old trouble I ever experienced. At the first of the fever, my mother gave me Ayer's Pills, my doctor recommending them as being better than anything he could prepare. I continued taking these Pills, and so great was the benefit derived that during nearly thirty years I have had but one attack of my former trouble, which yielded readily to the same remedy." *

A COMFORTING ASSURANCE.

"Dye know," said Plodding Pete, "I'm gittin' oneasy about myself. I'm gittin' skeart fur fear the way I fills the flowin' termater-can'll ruin me prospects. Am I whut ye'd regard ez a hard drinker?"

Meandering Mike looked at him contemptuously, and answered, "Naw."

"Honest?"

"Course its honest. A man couldn't be furder from a hard drinker' you are. Ye're de easiest drinker I ever saw in my life."

TAKING HIS ARTISTIC MEASURE.

"Will you have a three-quarters view?" asked the photographer.

"That's it, exactly," replied Farmer Cornrossel, delightedly. "'Bout seventy-five cents' worth."—Washington Star.

A SERENADE.

O mellow moonlight warm,
Weave round my love a charm;
O countless starry eyes,
Watch from the holy skies;
O ever solemn night,
Shield her within thy might;
Watch her, my little one!
Shield her, my darling!

How my heart shrinks with fear,
Nightly to leave thee, dear;
Lonely and pure within
Vast glooms of woe and sin;
Our wealth of love and bliss
Too heavenly perfect is:
Good night, my little one!
God keep thee, darling!

—James Thomson.

WHAT SHE MEANT.

Cholly—What did she mean by saying I couldn't be any bigger donkey than I was?

She—I suppose she meant that you had your growth.—Life.

SWEET TEMPERED WOMAN.

Maria—What do you think of my new gown?

Maud—Lovely! It reminds me exactly of one one I gave to our housemaid last week.

STARTING A BANK ACCOUNT.

Her father—Has this young man any resources to support a wife?

Birdie McGinnis—He is going to save $5 a week by giving up cigarettes. That's enough to begin on, ain't it pa?

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

Good Advice Quickly Followed

Cured of Rheumatism by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:"

"I was taken down with rheumatism over a year ago. I was sick for over six months. Often I would have such pains that I could hardly endure them. A friend came to me and advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took him at his word and got a bottle of it, and since have taken eight bottles of it.

It Has Cured Me

When the doctors could do me no good whatever. After being benefited so much from this medicine I describe Hood's Sarsaparilla as a wonderful medicine. I also advise every one who is troubled with rheumatism not to be with-
